

HABITAT

The word, "habitat" means the home of an animal, plant, or other organism. A healthy habitat is free of invasive species and contains many different kinds of living and unliving things, like rocks and fallen trees.

Color me to see this river come to life!

Otters, brook trout, and native water plants all live in this healthy habitat.

