

Forestry Field Day

Saturday, September 9, 2017

9:00 am to 3:00 pm

Interlochen Center for the Arts

Mallory-Towsley Center for Arts Leadership

4000 Highway M-137, Interlochen

Join area forest landowners to learn about:

- American Tree Farm System
- Michigan Forest Property Tax Programs
- Sustainable Forest Management Practices
- Oak Wilt Management
- Demonstration of a portable sawmill
- “Forests for Fish”— how Michigan’s forests provide abundant clean water and quality fish habitat

Presenters include:

- ◆ Daniel Schillinger, Schillinger Forestry and Northern Michigan Tree Doctor
- ◆ Heather Hettinger, DNR Fisheries Biologist
- ◆ Jenna Johnson, DNR Americorps Forest Health Technician
- ◆ Robert Foulkes, Owner White Oak Timber Frames
- ◆ Mary O'Brien and Daniel McCormick, Environmental Artists
- ◆ Kama Ross, Forestry Assistance Program District Forester

Cost is $5.00/person which includes lunch.

Register by contacting Kama Ross at 231-256-9783 or kama.ross@macd.org by September 1st.

Co-sponsored by the Forestry Assistance Program of Benzie, Leelanau, and Grand Traverse Conservation Districts, the Michigan Tree Farm Committee and Interlochen Center for the Arts.